Embroidery

A warm welcome back to Judith Baker Montano, world-renowned Canadian born fibre artist, author and teacher who is comfortable in many mediums. Judith started quilting in 1976, and her career has taken her from painting, to crazy quilting, to embellished embroidery artwork, and into land/seascapes and underwater projects. Judith is a best selling author who has written eleven books, produced five DVD's, and has her own line of hand dyed silks.

Painting with Fabrics —
Sea or Land  RE137
