PRAYER: OUR MOST POWERFUL WEAPON
Will you PRAY with me?

I firmly believe that there is no obstacle too great for prayer.

God’s Word reveals over and over again, the power of prayer. I’m asking you to help me unlock that power for believers around the world.

Please make a holy commitment this month to prayer. I ask you to join me as a prayer partner to ask for God’s guidance, blessings, and provision for Precept Ministries International.

I’ve enclosed four special prayers that you can use as a prayer guide for each week of February. Make no mistake about it . . . your prayers can change eternity.

And if you haven’t yet, make sure you join our Precept online community at precept.org/poc to find encouragement from other believers, and other resources that will equip you in your own walk with God.

Thank you, and God bless you.

David Arthur, CEO
Precept Ministries International
Please pray with us this week for our work in Eurasia. Our winter Training Institute begins this week at the Precept Training Center in Romania. Over 100 leaders will spend two weeks diving deep into God’s Word as part of their three-year training process. As a result, thousands of new students will be equipped to discover God’s Truth for themselves.

This week please pray for our leadership development workshops happening in “creative access” countries where traditional mission strategies are simply not possible. While the work in these places is sometimes very difficult and dangerous, the results are nothing short of amazing. Your prayers are the foundation upon which this work is built.

Notes::
Please pray for our national director in India, Suresh Thomas. He is responsible for growing the ministry of Precept in a country of over one billion people. We are hosting new workshops and building the Precept Network here to expand our reach among people who speak hundreds of languages and dialects.
